CRELDA Law Journal Declaration Form

The following information is required for the submission of an academic article to CRELDA Law Journal. Each article submission requires one declaration form to be signed and submitted alongside it; for co-authored articles, the designated corresponding author should sign and submit the declaration form. Please note that any failure to submit this declaration form or to acknowledge any of the provided fields below will result in a default rejection of your submission and acceptance will be pending the submission or revision of this form.

Please put a '✓' in all the relevant boxes.

Ethics in publishing

I hereby declare that:

- The article reflects the authors' own research and analysis.
- The article properly credits the meaningful contributions of co-authors and co-researchers.

Conflicts of interest

I hereby declare that there are no actual or potential conflicts of interest including any financial, personal or other relationships with other people or organizations within three years of beginning the submitted work that could inappropriately influence, or be perceived to influence, their work. Examples of potential conflicts of interest include employment, consultancies, stock ownership, honoraria, paid expert testimony, patent applications/registrations, and grants or other funding.

Submission declaration

I hereby declare that the work described has not been published previously (except in the form of an abstract or as part of a published lecture or academic thesis), that it is not under consideration for publication elsewhere, that its publication is approved by all authors and tacitly or explicitly by the responsible authorities where the work was carried out, and that, if accepted, it will not be published elsewhere including electronically in the same form, in English or in any other language, without the written consent of the copyright-holder.

Libellous or other unlawful statements

I hereby declare that the material does not and/or will not contain libellous or other unlawful statements and does and/or will not infringe the intellectual property rights of others. If excerpts from copyrighted works requiring permission are included in the material, it is
